

Language Paper 1 Reading Homework Choice

Choose one task to complete each week for your homework! You can attempt an AMBER or a GREEN more than once to show progress!

How does the writer use language in the opening paragraph to show what the main character is like?

Follow the WETTER structure and write at least 3 WETTERS!

List four things you learn about the setting in the extract

How has the writer used structure in the extract to create tension?

Follow the WETTER structure and write at least 3 WETTERS!

Choose one of the extracts.

A student said: "The ending of the extract is an effective conclusion to the story". To what extent do you agree?

How has the writer used language to describe the setting in the extract?

Follow the WETTER structure and write at least 3 WETTERS!

Choose one of the four extracts and attempt the Question 4 which is at the bottom of the extract.

List as many structural features as you can and provide an example for each

List four things you learn about the main character in the extract

List as many language features you could identify as you can and give an example for each

These questions will help your understanding of how to tackle Language Paper 1 Reading Questions. RED = easy, AMBER = medium. GREEN = challenge.